FOREWORD

I've been working with the '63 Quill Staff since June 1962 as they have labored feverishly securing advertisements, taking pictures, writing paragraphs, doing lay-outs, organizing material, and meeting deadlines to present the student body with a uniquely different yearbook. A publication of this kind requires the help of many individuals: Mr. Waskoskie devoted innumerable hours supervising and editing; Mr. Bowers snapped countless photographs; the Administration donated class time for pictures to be taken; the maintenance staff restored the biology room to its natural order each evening after we left; teachers endured countless class interruptions. Through the joint cooperation of all these people this publication has finally been completed. I now present the 1963 Quill.

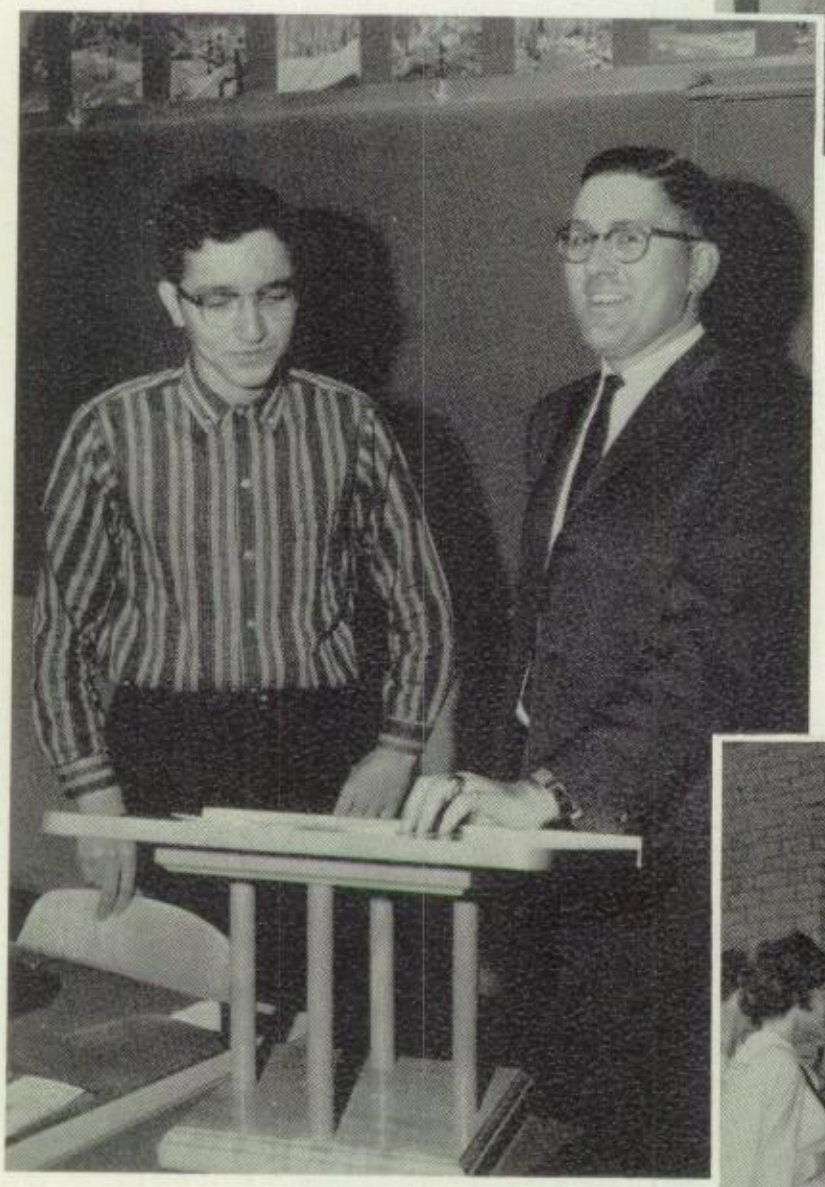
DEDICATION

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO

As the sponsor of Student Council, Mr. Lozier takes an active interest in all student affairs. Pictured here with the President and Vice-President of Student Council, Mr. Lozier is making plans for the panther that now hangs in the gymnasium.



Closely associated with the American Field Service, Mr. Lozier goes out of his way to make our foreign exchange student feel welcome.

A teacher of Problems of Democracy, Mr. Lozier is aware of the necessity of producing good citizens as well as good students. In October he supervised the Student Council elections in an effort to demonstrate this need to others.

MR. JAMES LOZIER

"The best teacher is the one who suggests rather than dogmatizes, and inspires his listener with the wish to teach himself."

– Bulwer

CLASS HISTORY

Six years at Franklin have produced many memories for the Senior Class. Do you remember . . .

SEVENTH GRADE

Jim Mance was president of a group of seventh graders too busy becoming adjusted to junior high life to sponsor any projects. The seventh and eighth grade party represented the social event of the year.

EIGHTH GRADE

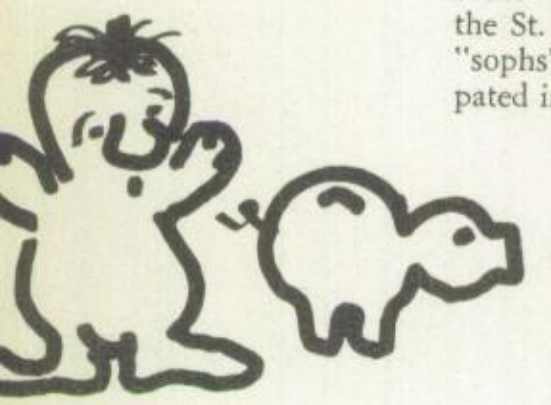
As eighth graders, the Class of '63 helped the seniors campaign in the first major Student Council election. Selling candy bars was adopted as the project and the campaign was headed by class president Greg Harris.

NINTH GRADE

Basketball fever was prevalent the freshman year as a well-trained Franklin team won the junior high section championship. At the ninth grade graduation ceremonies Dick Snyder, class president, accepted the diploma for the group; the dance following graduation became a never-to-be-forgotten affair when the ladies of the faculty organized a system by which each boy had the chance to dance with each girl in the class.

TENTH GRADE

Realizing that the class treasury was low, president Greg Harris organized sweatshirt sales and the St. Valentine's dance, "February Frolic." Many "sophs" (wearing non-conformist attire) participated in the illegal Beatnik Day.



ELEVENTH GRADE

Football came to Franklin that year and many juniors participated in the sport. Since they were responsible for two dances, the class undertook three projects: a bake sale, a second sweatshirt campaign, and a thrilling basketball game between the K.Q.V. High Hoopers and the faculty. The Halloween dance "Dante's Inferno" was successful and the prom "Moulin Rouge" was rated by many "The best ever given."

TWELFTH GRADE

The jointure with Export School System marked a major feature of the '62-'63 year. Varsity football sparked the autumn term as 12 seniors received letters. Greg Harris was elected to his fourth term as president and presided capably as the seniors presented the class play, and two dances, the "Harvest Moon" at Thanksgiving, and the "Holiday Inn" at Christmas.

SENIORS

"Sit on the tack of success and rise rapidly."

Blue and Silver

The Senior year is generally symbolized at Franklin by the panic to find the right job or college, transcript worries, senior parties, and Mr. Bell's English class. Emotionally, seniors range from a lackadaisical I-don't-even-care attitude to a frantic final effort to "make the grade." Socially, seniors manage to throw more late parties, sponsor more dances, control more extracurricular activities, harass more teachers, and go more places than any other class. The class of '63 has done all these things and more; this year was highlighted by the successful holiday dances, "Harvest Moon" and "Holiday Inn."

"Wisdom cometh through suffering"

Red and White

As upperclassmen, the juniors share many of the pleasures as well as the responsibilities enjoyed by the seniors. The eleventh year is as academically difficult as it is socially exciting. The combination of higher math and science courses as well as more difficult humanities, exerts a great deal of pressure on those students. This pressure is relieved, however, through participation in the many extracurricular activities as well as planning the major social event—the Junior Prom. To prepare for this prom, the class sold pizza at basketball games and sponsored a bake sale.

"Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today."
Turquoise and White

Enjoying their first year in the Senior High is a large class of vivacious sophomores. The change from ninth to tenth grade is a challenging one: teachers demand more; subjects are more advanced, and extracurricular activities increase. The Class of '65 has met the challenge. Under the guidance of interested sponsors they sold sweatshirts and presented the successful Valentine Dance "Game of Hearts."

FRESHMEN

"Panthers Forever"

Blue and White

As the "big wheels" in the junior high school, the freshmen have found themselves burdened with many extra responsibilities as well as privileges. While they engage in many senior high activities, there are still many other areas in which they are confined strictly to the junior high. These ambitious "frosh" sold cashews this year to gain funds to sponsor their one big event—the ninth grade graduation dance.

"We Aim High"

Red and Gold

Overloaded with assignments, books, and confusing directions, the seventh graders find themselves in the awkward position of being the youngest class at Franklin. They passed their first year by planning for their project, learning the fundamentals of parliamentary procedure, and observing the activities of upperclassmen.

AND ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY

More than just classroom instructors, our faculty is a vital part of our life at Franklin. After spending about seven hours each day teaching the students, they spend more time and effort in sponsoring extra-curricular activities. Their knowledge, experience, and time are placed at the disposal of the students, and the benefits derived from them are evident throughout the school.

ADMINISTRATION

The administration is composed of dedicated men who give unselfishly of their time, their talents, and themselves to the efficient operation of the school. These men have demonstrated wise judgment and superb leadership in planning and executing school curricula and activities. Under their competent supervision, Franklin has become an institution of such standards that each student is proud to be identified with it.

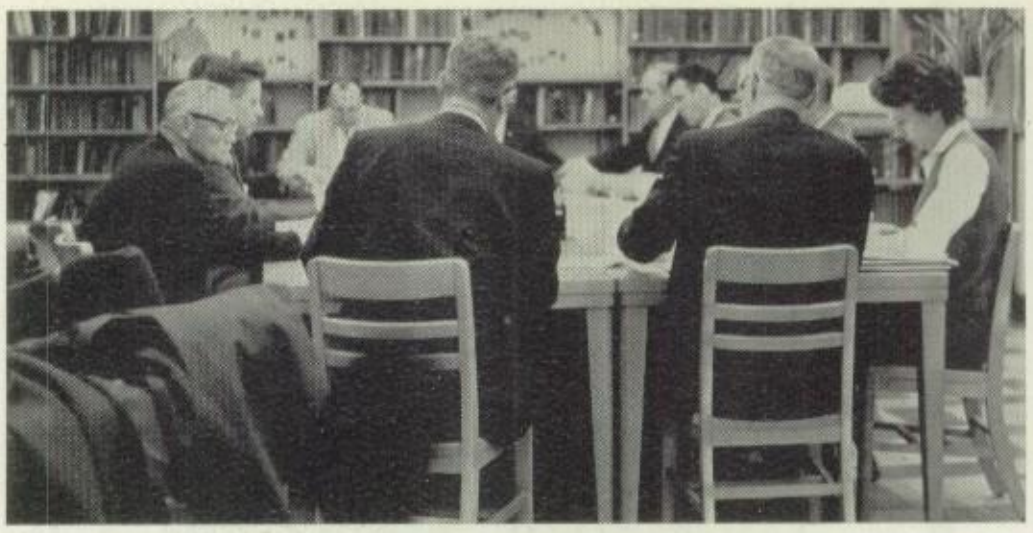
SCHOOL BOARD
FACULTY COMMITTEE

The aim of the School Board is to provide good education facilities for the community. Meeting twice monthly, the members of the school board are actively interested in promoting the best interests of each student in the school system.

The Faculty Committee, composed of four permanent members and four alternate members, is also primarily interested in the individual student. It is the task of this group to review borderline grade cases at the end of the year and render a decision on passing or failing.



"The School Board works to provide a good educational system."

FOOTBALL

Panther football season opened on August eighteenth when one hundred and twelve boys reported to the school field for the first of many grueling practices. These practices were marked by rigorous calisthenics, wind sprints, fundamentals, timing of plays, and various scrimmages. In August the boys elected Fred Harkness as team captain, and it was agreed that the three coaches would choose a different co-captain for each game. They were: Loren Hill, Greg Harris, Don Heider, Ron Boyd, John Schwarzel, Bruce Baker, George Washburn and Dan Piser. As the season progressed the separate divisions of the team acquired distinguishing names: the seniors became known as the "Lovers," the defensive team was called the "Cake-Eaters," and the remaining players were tagged "Cookie-Pushers." The team showed steady improvement throughout the season, and Coach Eyles' statement at the end of this season reflected the thoughts of the entire student body. He said, "Fine job. I was very happy with them—very pleased."

Franklin opened its first varsity season by losing to the Washington Twp. Raiders in a game which turned into a last minute thriller when the Panthers advanced the ball to one-yard line only to be halted in play by the crack of the gun.

At Haymaker Park in the first home game, the Panthers fought to overcome a 380-pound Tiger center, but went down to a decisive defeat.

Skaaaaaaaaash 'em!!!

At Rankin, the hardy Franklin team held the opposition scoreless until the third quarter, but the defense slacked-off and the Rabbits scored four T.D.'s and one extra point.

Excitement reigned supreme at the Ford City match when the boys gave it all they had only to lose by a single point.

One touchdown, a pass from Bob Moose completed in the end zone by Bob Davis, and a single extra point kicked by Kent Spuhler, represented the only Panther scoring in the Penn-Claridge contest.

Outranking Franklin, a fast Verona team scored twenty-one points in the first half of that contest, but a hardened Franklin defense managed to hold them scoreless in the final two quarters. The Panthers were, however, unable to score, and the game ended in a 21-0 shut out.

The following game the Panthers turned the tables as they shut out Ligonier, thereby winning their first varsity game after a twenty-seven year absence from varsity ball.

Closing the season in fine style, the team snowed under the Elders Ridge Rams by a thirty-seven point margin.

Throughout the season school spirit mounted, sparked by pep rallies and the bon fire, and reached its peak for the final game. A victorious and happy Franklin team and student body ripped down the Haymaker goal posts and marched two miles to the school, shouldering their laurels.

A growing sport at Franklin, rifle provides many senior high boys with the chance to demonstrate their precision sport ability. Under the supervision of Mr. Waskoskie and Mr. Stoltenberg, sixteen boys began practice in November for their first match in January. Ten men shoot in each match; the top five shooters qualifying. Two members from each team score the match targets, the top possible individual score being 100-10X and the top team rating 500.

Exercise

Under Mr. Schutte's direction, the advanced gym team members demonstrate their skills to the younger and less experienced gymnasts. The team is divided into groups that specialize on one piece of apparatus, but everyone participates in "free" exercise. Although they didn't participate in interscholastic competition, they displayed their gymnastic abilities in various exhibitions throughout the year.

LETTERGIRLS

The Franklin Lettergirls charmed the half-time spectators at all of the school's football games with their marching drills and fancy dance steps.

The girls were chosen by several teachers for poise, precision, marching ability, and appearance.

Many hours of practice resulted in fine performances at the bon fire and open house where the nine vivacious girls aided the band in presenting "A Day in the Park" and other routines.

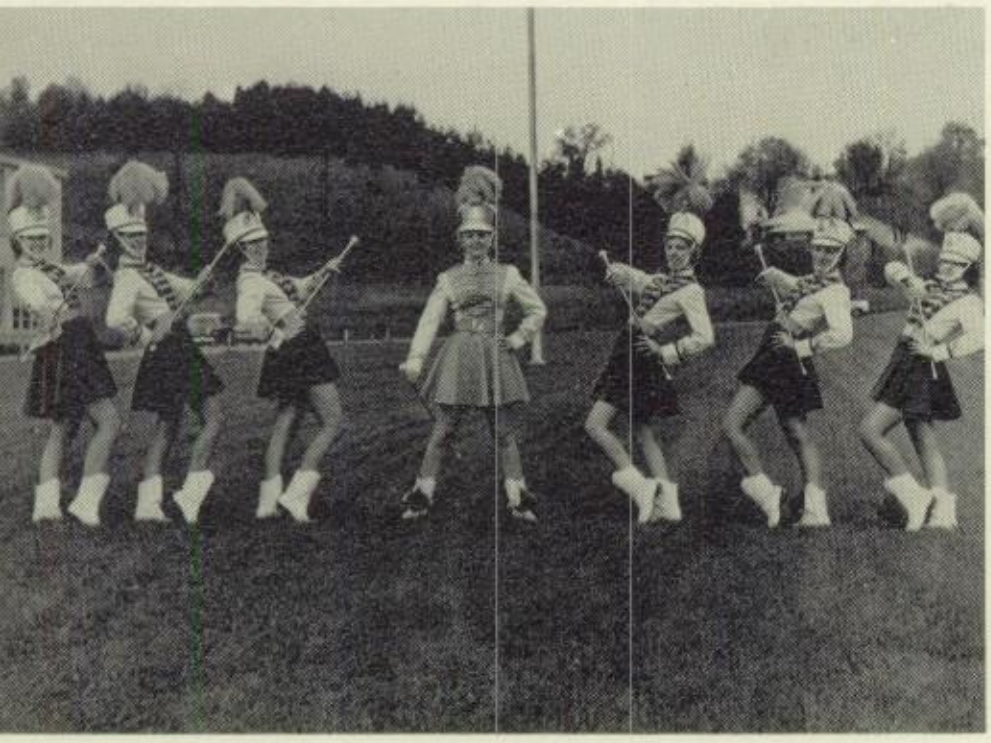
MAJORETTES



Majorettes before the big game

Our lively Franklin Majorettes, with their glowing enthusiasm, highlighted the half-time performances for Franklin Varsity football games.

Their fine co-ordination was clearly exhibited this year in such routines as the popular "Twist and Shout" and "Mr. Touchdown."

Through many long hours of practice, the majorettes prepared to entertain the crowds with their colorful precise drills.

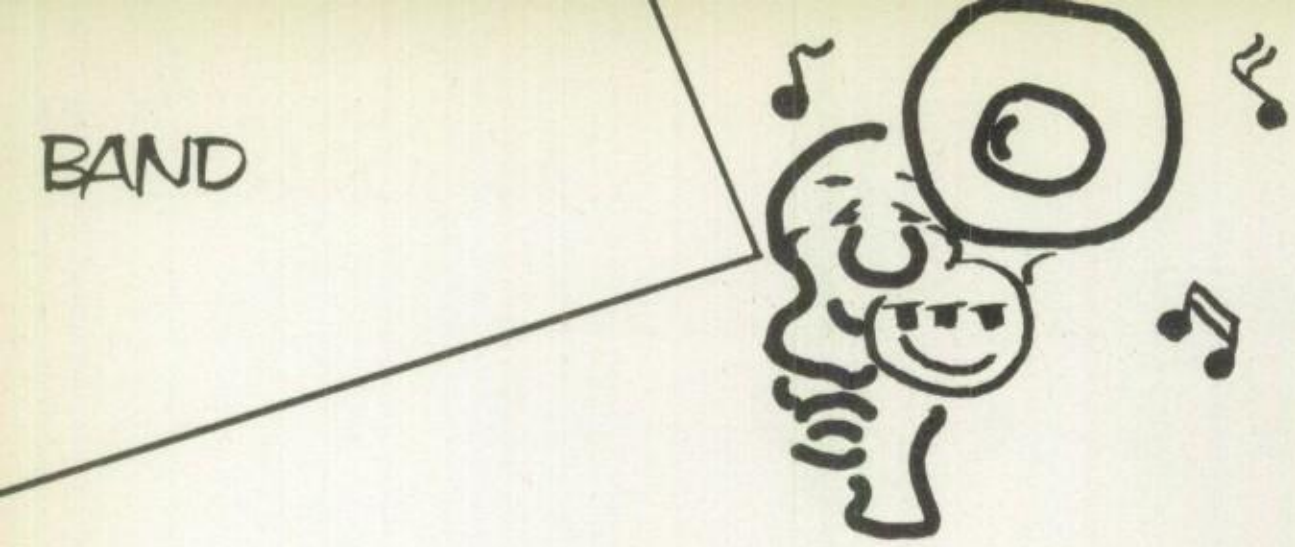
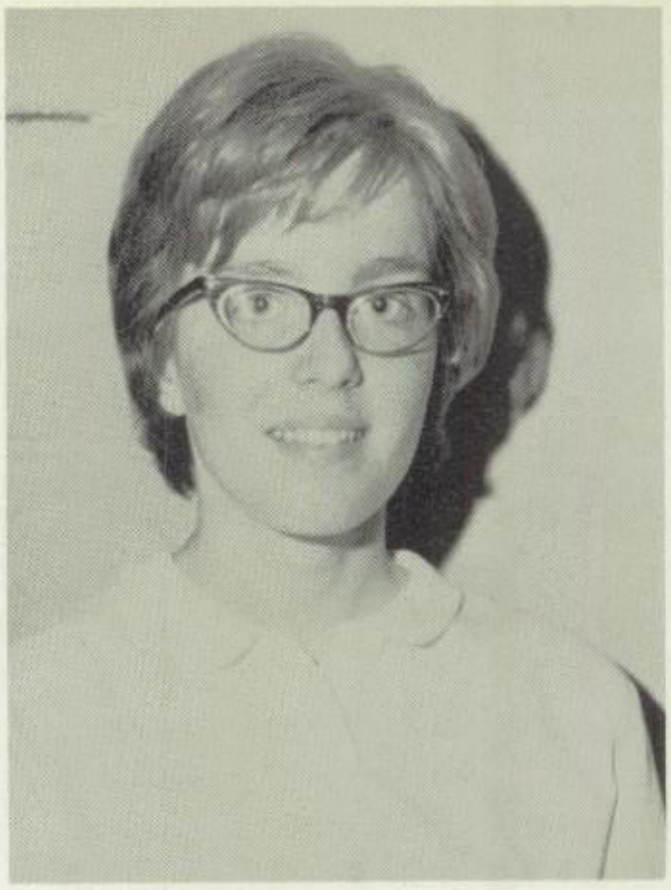
BAND





Student Director JOAN LOVEDAY

The Panther Marching Band, under the experienced direction of Mr. Green, stimulated the crowds at the football games with lively music and precisioned drills. Practice began in the sweltering heat of August and continued through the gridiron season. A regular booster club, the band attended games and pep rallies supporting the team with cheers as well as marches.

After football season the Concert Band began regular Monday and Thursday rehearsals to prepare for the winter and spring performances. The long-awaited blue and gold uniforms arrived and the band first presented them at the Open House in November.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders at Franklin put forth much energy, striving to promote enthusiasm, school spirit and good sportsmanship among the student body. The enthusiastic fans are led by these girls at every pep rally, bonfire, football and basketball game as they organize the students into a spirited group.

With the assistance of Miss Conley and Mrs. MacFarland, the cheerleaders are not only a valuable but a necessary asset to the school.

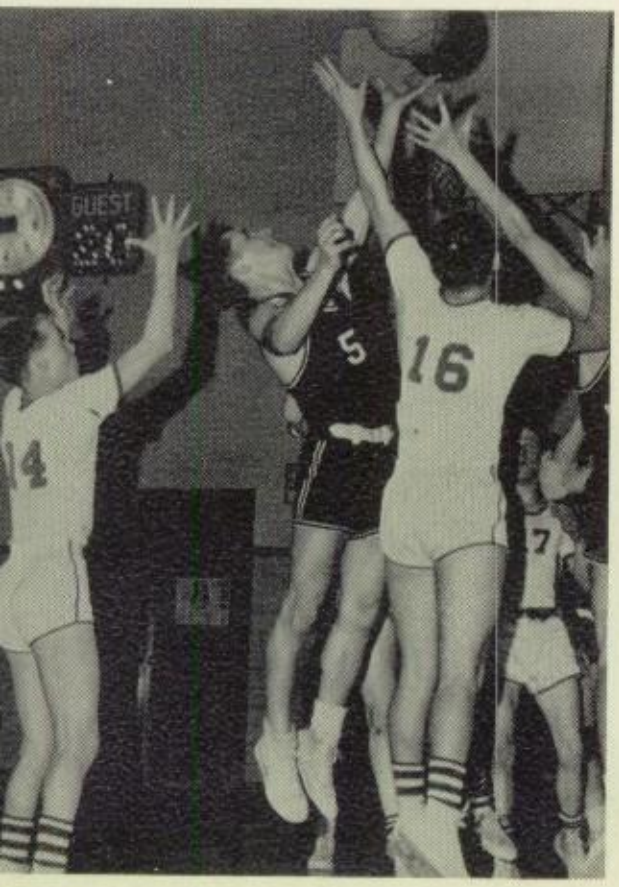
Coached by Mr. Steel and Mr. Zaccari this exhuberant group of junior highers gained experience in learning the fundamentals of the game. Rigorous practice sessions were conducted each evening during the season at the Newlonsburg gym as the boys trained to meet the tough competition in their section.

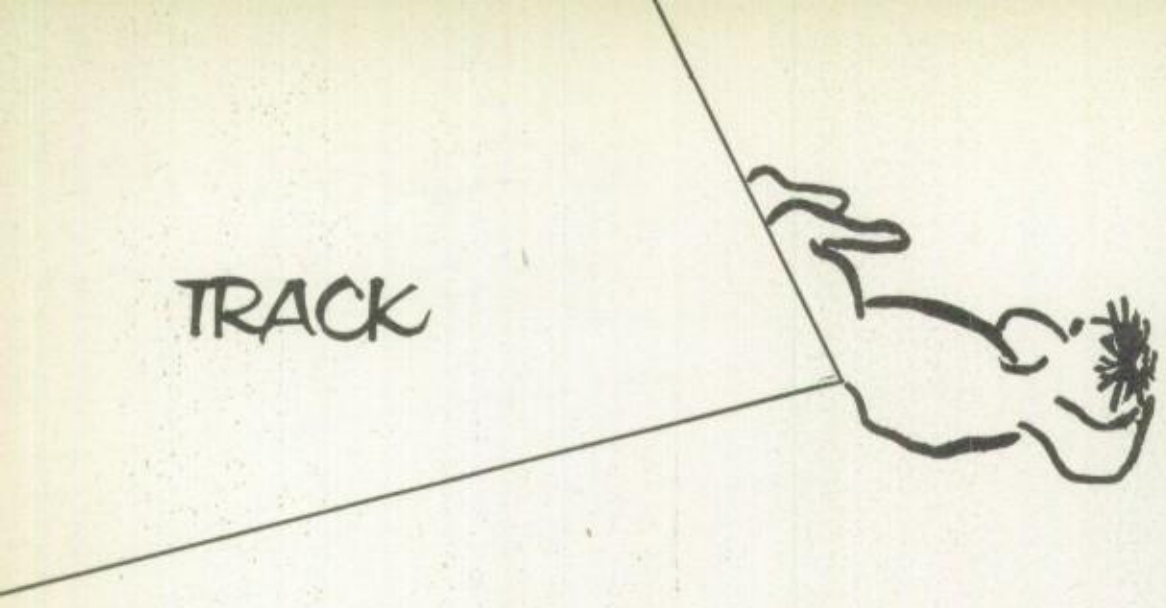


"I've got it!"

"Let's go! Let's fight! Let's win!"

"Now do it this way, boys."

TRACK



Track is one of the few Junior High spring sports. Although it is somewhat of an unsung sport at Franklin it is a sport in which almost all boys can participate. Track affords equal opportunity for all boys to exhibit their particular prowess whether it be muscles for the shot put and discus, strong legs for jumping or speed and stamina for running. For the past few years Mr. Sasala and Mr. Waskoskie have done a remarkable job instilling in boys, who have come out for track, a never give up attitude, and a spirit of good sportsmanship.

The Zeta Eta Sigma chapter of the Tri Hi Y is a new girl's organization formed at Franklin by Mr. Sickler, the secretary of the East Suburban Y.M.C.A. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Brewer the girls of Tri Hi Y sold candy to raise money for a canoe trip slated for summer. During the year the girls participated in various civic activities and sponsored several social events such as spelunking and roller skating.

VARSITY CLUB

Membership in the Varsity Club is obtained when a student receives his first letter in any varsity sport. The club, under the guidance of Mr. Eyles, sold pine trees at Christmas and popcorn at the basketball games to gain funds to purchase jackets. The handsome wool jackets were presented at a pep rally to those members who had received two letters in a single sport.

STAGE CREW
FIRE MARSHALS

STAGE CREW

No play can be staged successfully without a cooperative and hard-working stage crew. These boys set up the scenery for all of Franklin's plays and help with the lighting. Also, they take care of all necessary equipment for the numerous assemblies held for the entertainment of the study body.

FIRE MARSHALS

When the fire alarm sounds, the fire marshals are standing by to help evacuate the school as soon as possible. They check all rooms to be certain all windows are closed, lights out, and all students have left the building. With the help of these few boys, fire drills at Franklin run smoothly and quickly.

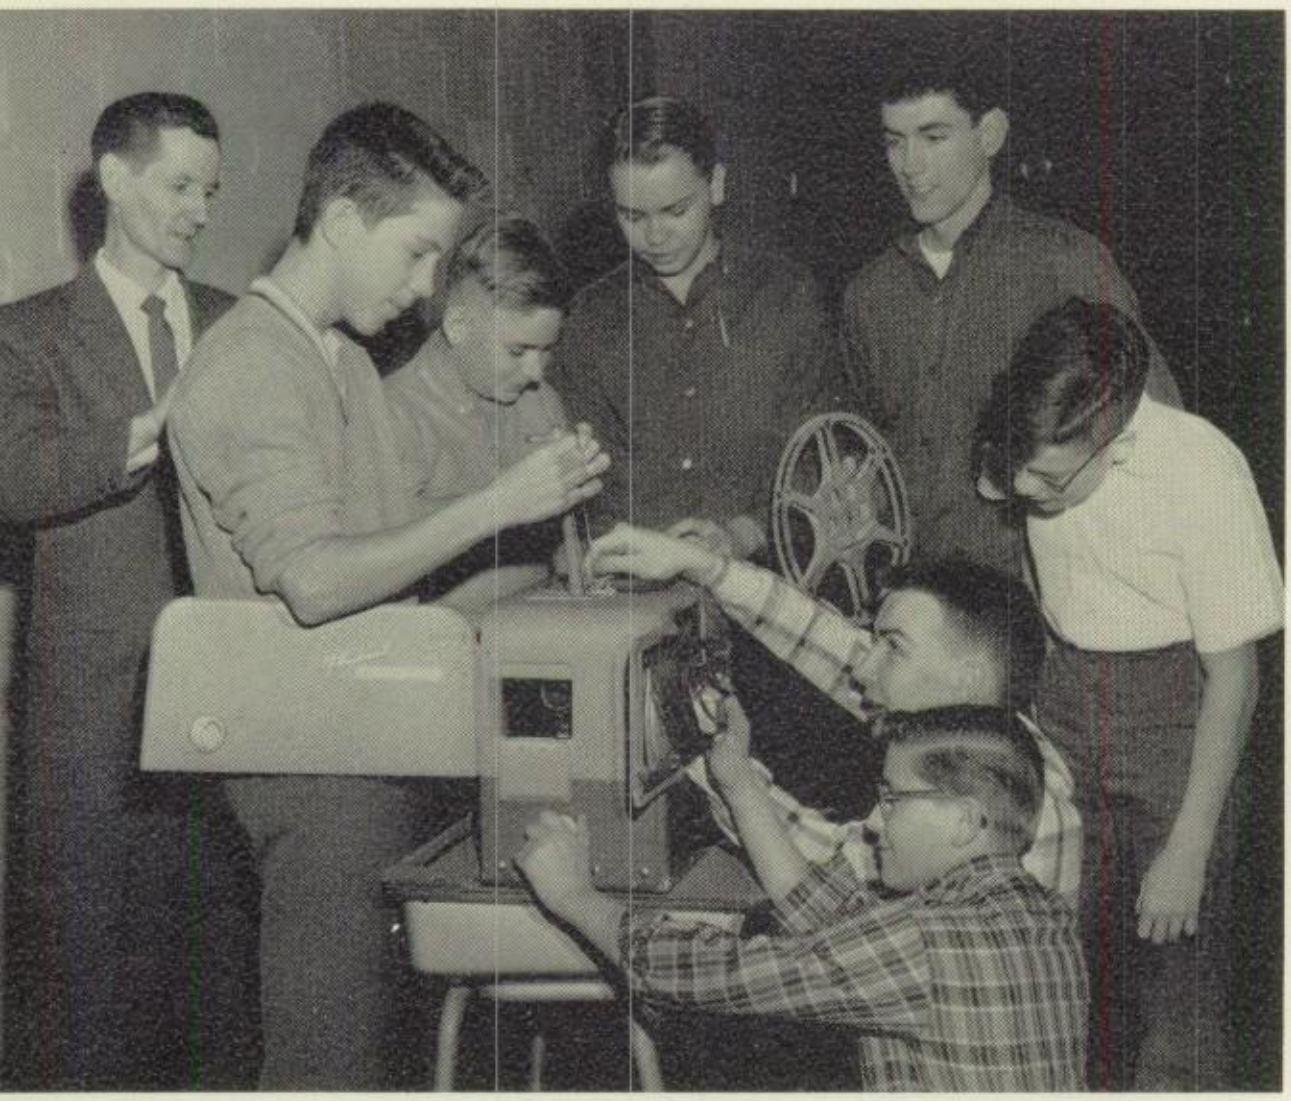
CAMERA CLUB



D. Zaccari, Mr. Farabaugh (Sponsor), P. Watt, P. Reynard, P. Heller, L. Brown, D. Milewski, R. Young.

VISUAL AIDS

The Visual Aids Club sponsored by Mr. Farabaugh instructs students in the operation and maintenance of the audio visual equipment. During their regular meetings, club members check the equipment for needed repairs, then set it up in the preparation of assemblies. Teachers, students, and other members of our community benefit from the services of this organization.

CAMERA CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Bowers the members of the Camera Club learn the best photo techniques. These photographers, learn not only how to take the best pictures, but how to develop the film and the negatives. In a well equipped dark room, the Camera Club has the opportunity to put into practice what they learn.

F.T.A.

Aspiring to become teachers, the members of the F.T.A. meet two Fridays a month to gain knowledge about their chosen profession. Members were permitted to put into practice this knowledge through observation and practice teaching for one day in a chosen field. Sponsored by Miss Tabone, the fifty-member club took field trips to Clarion State College and West Virginia University.

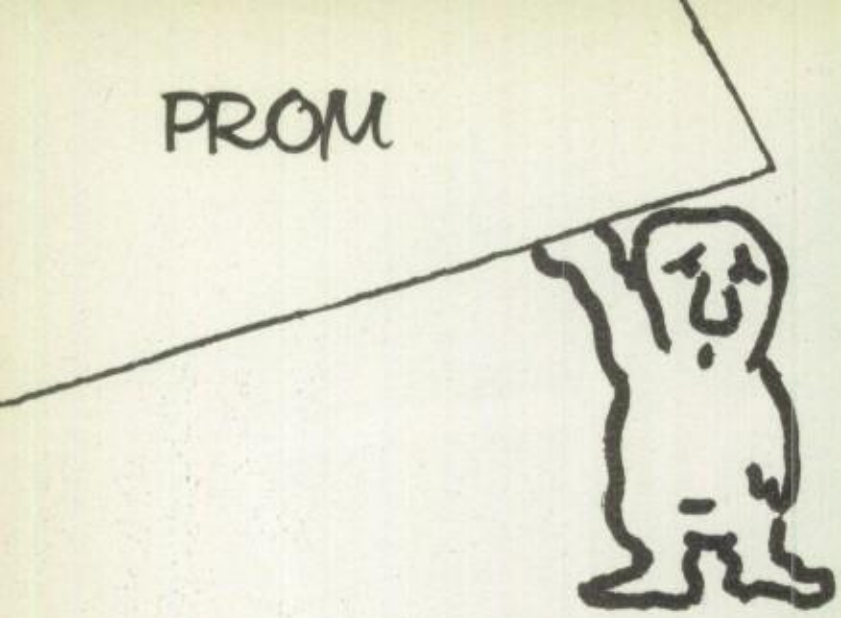
NURSES' AIDS—Martha Veenis, Anita Drnjevich, Mrs. Gasper (School Nurse), Sue Miller, Sharon Hahn, Ruth Dempsey, Darlene Emerick.

MRS. GASPER

The Nurses' Aids are six Senior girls who spend their study halls helping Mrs. Gasper, the school nurse. These girls help with the charting, filing, hearing tests, vision tests, dental examinations and measuring and weighing of students. Under Mrs. Gasper the girls learn the importance of good medical ethics, first aid procedures and how to remain physically fit.

ACTIVITIES

PROM



Let's drop it on him!

Preparations for the Junior Prom, "Moulin Rouge," began early in November. Mr. Buck and a small committee of juniors worked hard throughout the winter to complete the plans, and by April most of the class was included in the project.

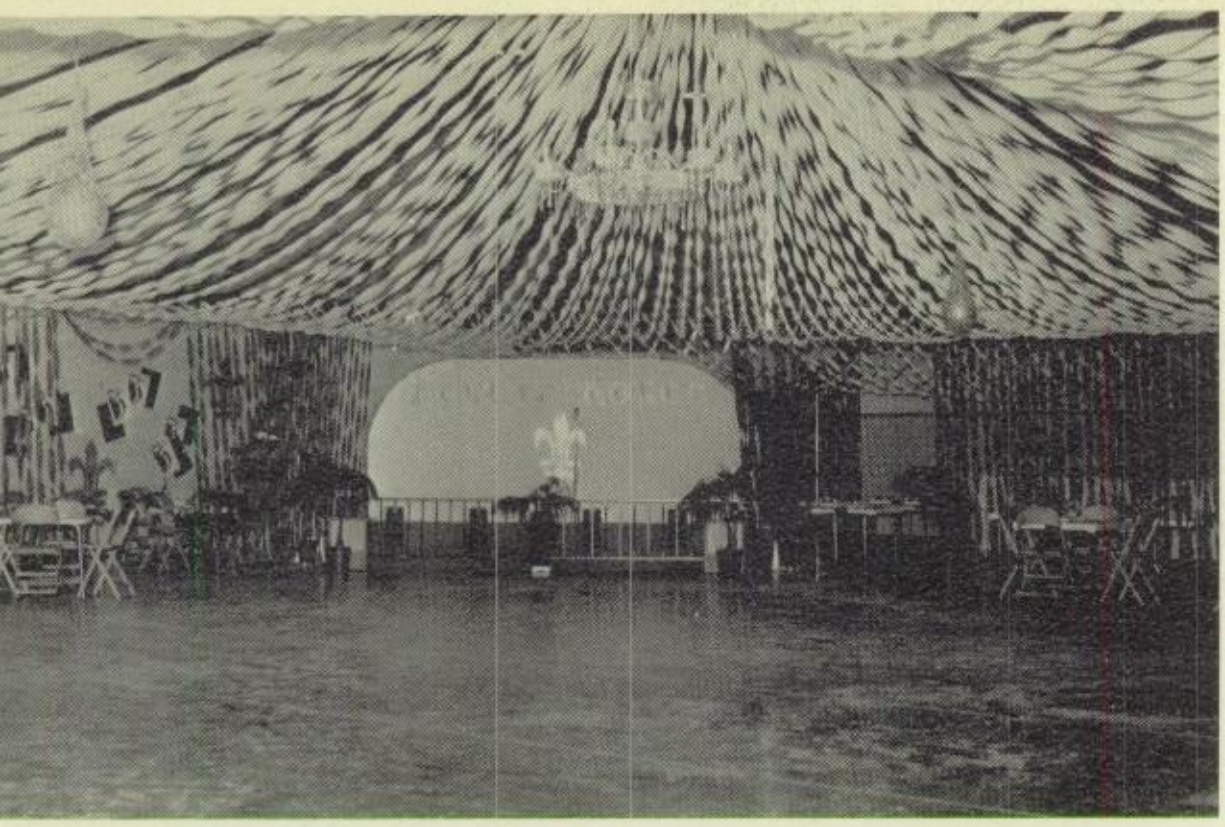
Augmenting the French atmosphere, freshman boys served as waiters and "frosh" misses as hatcheck girls. Lovely Lois Evans was crowned queen by her escort, Tony McMunn, and Nancy White was named princess.

Most weary, but happy, prom-goers reached home by 7:00 A.M. after the fabulous post-prom party, which was sponsored by the Lions and held at the Greensburg County Club.

I like this!

Get up, or I'll kick you again!

Ah, Mag, cut it out!



Ah, ready!

"Oh, Jim, I'm having so much fun!"

Tony McMunn crowns the prom queen, Lois Evans.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Sponsor,
MRS. THON

To be a member of the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors that can be obtained at Franklin. Ten per cent of the Senior class and five per cent of the junior class are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The members must maintain a B average to remain in the honor society. Under the direction of Mrs. Thon the society sold Panther jackets to help raise money for two scholarships that they gave to members of the N.H.S. As a service group they helped the guidance office with registration and achievement tests. They also acted as guides to visiting African students who toured Franklin in January. Membership in this organization is maintained throughout life.

YEARBOOK

The Quill Staff has worked diligently to make this edition a success. Their job has not been an easy one; but through co-operation, cheerfulness, and long hours of labor, the '63 Quill has finally been completed.

Many vital departments are necessary for a yearbook staff to operate efficiently. The business manager is in charge of sales, distribution, and all expenses of the publication. The literary staff composes all written material, while the typists prepare this material for printing. All art work and planning falls in the hands of the lay-out committee, and all the extra jobs are left to the junior staff. From the three associate editors of this junior staff, the editor of the '64 Quill will be chosen. The senior editor is responsible for all senior pictures and activities, and the ad-boys spend hours soliciting advertisements to finance this annual.

Supervising and coordinating all these separate departments has been Tracy Spuhler. Elected to associate editor in her junior year, Tracy gained valuable experience working on the '62 Quill Staff.

NEWSPAPER

Under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief Laurel Porterfield, the "Panther" has made striking advances this year. The quality of the writing, artwork, photography, and layout have shown definite improvement, and the number of issues has increased from eleven to twelve. Persevering department editors as well as loyal reporters, artists, and typists have labored to make this publication a success. The news editor is responsible for her large staff of reporters, making up page one, and collaborating with the editor-in-chief on page three. The feature editor covers all feature stories, guides aspiring feature writers, and prepares page two. Aided by his staff, the sports editor covers all sports events, writes a personal commentary, and is responsible for page four. The art editor and her staff design the name plate, originate any timely sketches, and illustrate given articles or features. The typists prepare the copy for printing and the business manager mails the finished issue to subscribers.

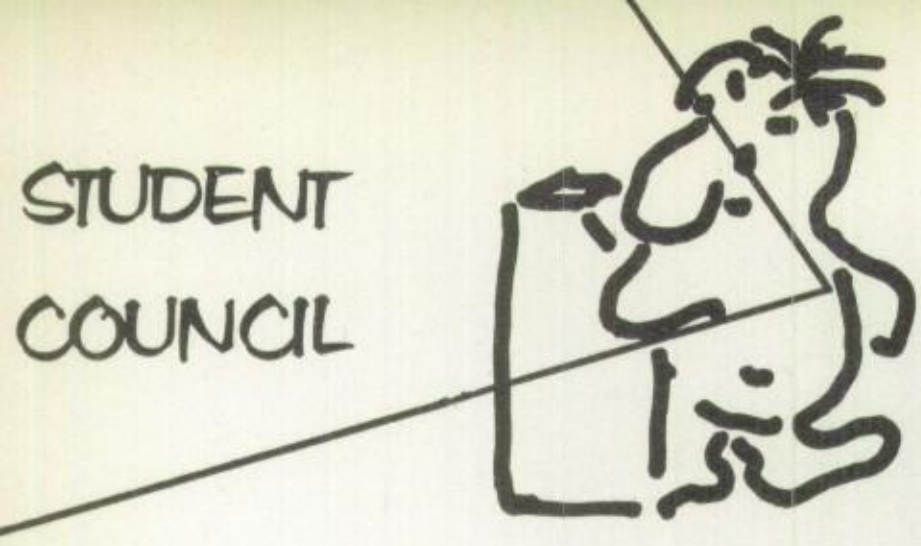
STUDENT COUNCIL



As the student governing body of Franklin, the Student Council moved into action in September of this year with an exciting campaign and election for president. Jim Mance was victorious over three other Senior candidates and presided capably through the year. The Council met alternate Thursdays in room 226 under the guidance of Mr. Lozier. In addition to sponsoring the A.F.S. program, the group sent several student buses to basketball games, directed a greater number of pep rallies, erected the large panther replica in the gym, sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins dances, and drafted a constitution for the new junior high school. The most unique activity of the Council this year involved the Raspit Week; a week given to honoring August Raspit, alumnus of Franklin High and former resident of White Valley who was killed in Mississippi while flying one of his gliders. A flight school in that state has been named after the brave pioneer in the world of flight.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

To the Student Body:

Since I was a young boy I always hoped for a chance to come to the United States. One day in the summer of 1962, I learned that I would have the opportunity, and you can imagine how happy I was.

The reasons why I was so interested in coming to the States were not only my personal desire to see "the wonder land of my dreams" but also to learn what makes a country strong and a leader for the entire free world. To learn more about the world—new ideas, new cultures—and to serve my country as an educated man evidently were the primary purposes of this interest.

I knew that the truth was this: the world was changing, and my country should change with it. We could not maintain our national policy, "peace at home, peace with the world," with closed eyes and closed minds. I believed that it could be a better world if we tried to make it so. It had to start with people getting to know people.

These ideas brought me closer to the American Field Service. In this organization I observed, more than ever before, the incalculable value of different origins who work and mingle together.

I, who personally enter fully into the American way of life, not only receive a good grounding for my further studies, but at the same time, I am developing a wealth of experience which will give me a valuable background for approaching the many problems with which I shall be faced throughout life.

When my year of opportunity is finished, the thing I shall really miss is the wonderful hospitality of the people of Murrysville, I have appreciated all those who have made my stay here possible and especially the Murray family who opened their home to me. I want to thank each one of you, students and faculty, for the welcome I was given. I will always remember Franklin and its "Panther."

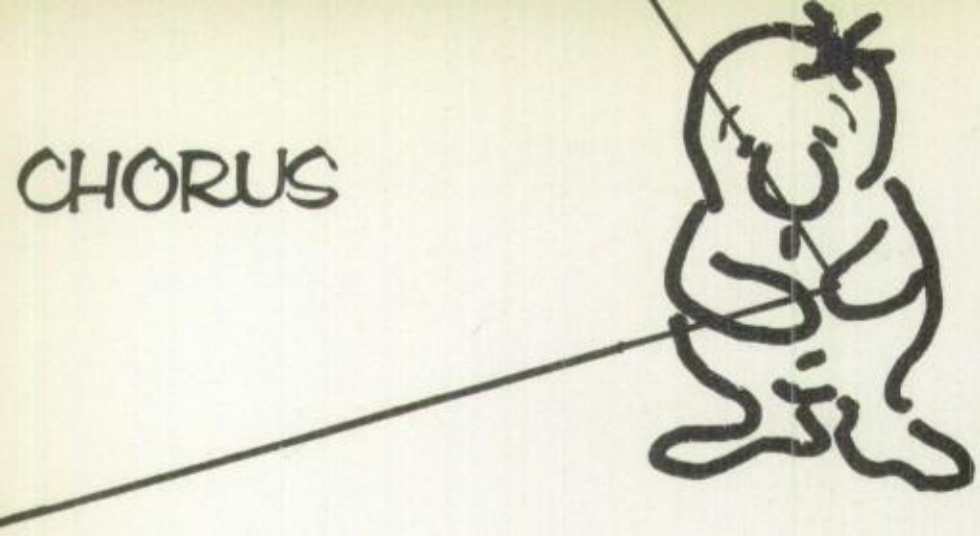
CHORUS



This talented group of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors sang at many musical presentations during the year. Performing at the open house, an assembly in February, and the winter and spring concerts, the chorus excelled under the expert direction of Mrs. Ference. In chorus class every day most of the members of chorus learn music, write songs, and sing special numbers in addition to singing as a group. This year the choristers had the opportunity to see the musical, "Sound of Music."

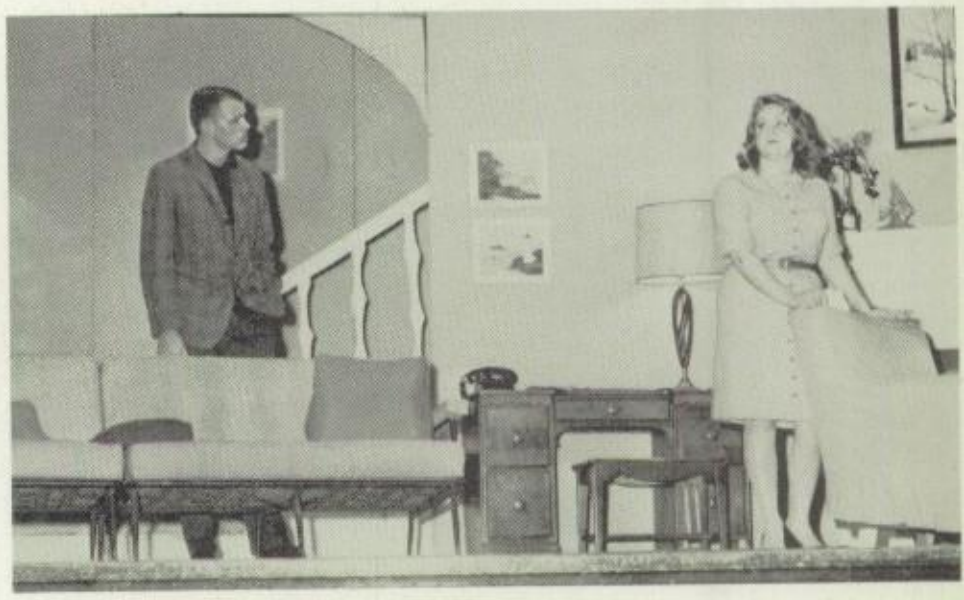
SENIOR PLAY

"Stage Door," presented by the Senior Class, portrayed the rise to success of a small-town girl to a Broadway star. Taking the lead roles under Mr. Gilmour's guidance, Donna Chisnell and Jim Gansinger had the audience captivated during the afternoon and evening performances.

"Did you know that in Ancient Egypt five thousand years ago the women used to dye their hair just like we do?"

. . . "Ah declare. Ah don't see how Ah can keep lovin' you, the way you get yourself up . . ."

"Oh, I'm so excited! How darling of you all to be here!"



"Now you're playing it for tragedy. What's the matter with you, anyhow!"

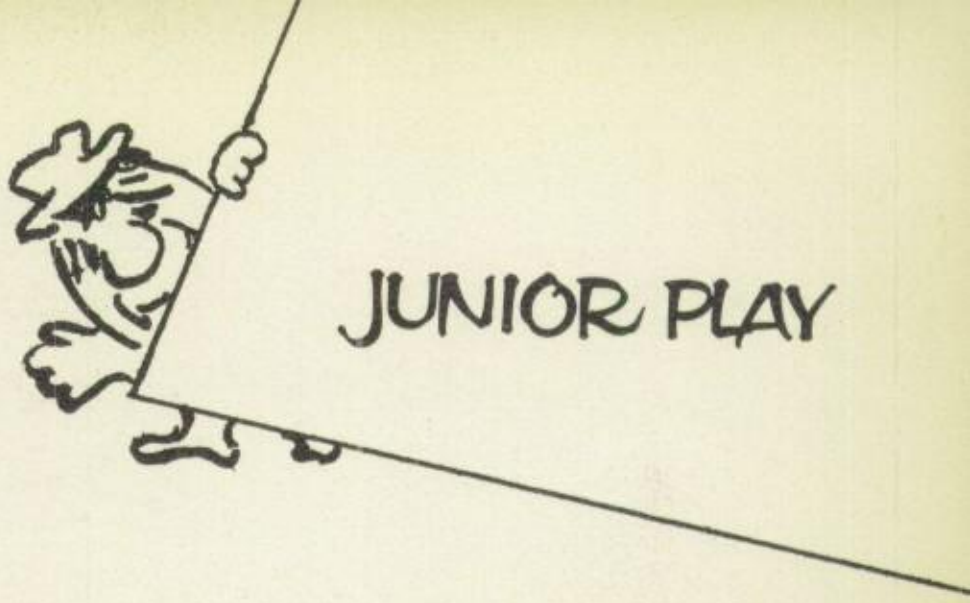
"Did you read about Jean out in Hollywood?"

"I'll take care of you, Emily—I love you."



Many long hours of rehearsal and planning went into the Junior's production of Thornton Wilder's immortal play, "Our Town." Under the experienced direction of Mr. Bell, the cast presented two evening performances to record audiences.

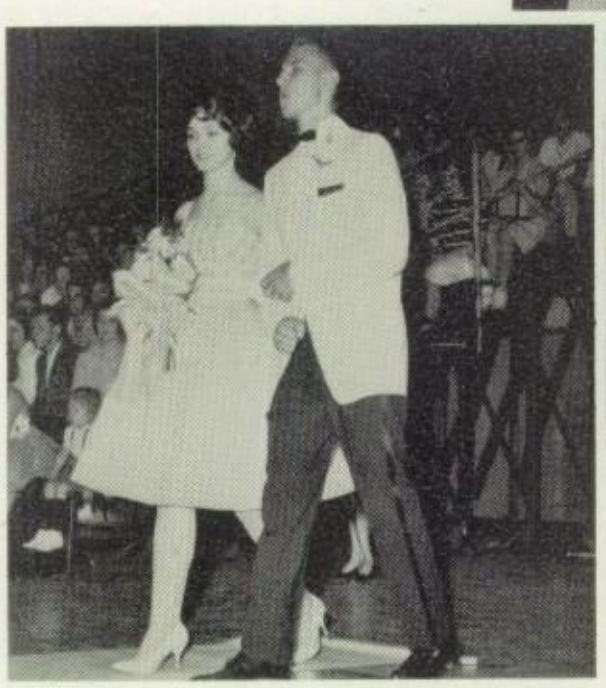
Curtain Call—finished at last!

But then . . .

MAY DAY

Late in March the members of the senior high school nominated and voted for candidates to be members of the 1962 May Court. Each girl chose her own escort, and color of attire was decided at a meeting with sponsors Miss Sterret and Mrs. Scheff. The afternoon of May fourth, the entire student body gathered in the gymnasium to celebrate May Day festivities and honor the beautiful queen and her charming attendants.



Carol Krushinski, Junior attendant with escort, Dan Straka.

THE 1962 MAY COURT

Sophomore attendant, Janet Earnest, with escort Harry Wilcox.

Queen Lois Evans and Senior attendants Vicki Wolfram, Barb Shaw, and Gwen Ross.

Elaine Daniels, Junior attendant with escort, Fred Harkness.

The Gym Team entertains the student body at the May Day festivities.

Val,

Best of luck to one of my best friend always stay the way you are and you will go far. Always remember the fun we had at the skating rink and just goofing around. Remember Jamie and Dar. Never forget the mad crush I had on John. (I really think I loved him.) Hope you have all the luck in the world. Hope you get what you want (Tom) or who you want. Remember the fights and squabbles we had over Larry. Never forget the bat dolls I broke the arm off of. Never let anyone get the best of you like I do.
Please don't forget dear old Mr. G (most (Pisshead himself.) Remember the day we almost [redacted] down at [redacted] and you course don't forget when we got caught ght. (Boy was I scared). Hope you and Tom always get along real good. Hope you will be allowed to see and date him soon. Remember the song It's My Party
And I'll Cry If I Want To. Remember the Clams!
Love
Judy

These hard-working people receive little glory for all the time and labor they spend in making life easier for the Franklin students. The cooks prepare balanced meals each day for 1,000 plus students in five lunch periods. The custodians spend their time sweeping, picking up, and dusting after the students. In addition, they clean up after extracurricular activities, basketball games and dances. The bus drivers are responsible for receiving students each morning, delivering them at school and returning them home each evening. For the convenience of the students, they also provide three activity buses each evening.

Val
To a real sweet, sharp,
nice cute, boyless girl. (Boy we always the fuss with, Linda, Judy and maybe me. Good luck in the future and be good
